Season 1 Episode 12

The Real Stars of Hollywood

Hollywood Boardroom 1975

Movie studio executives are in their seats looking over papers. One of them yells, “Next!” King Arcturus enters the boardroom dressed in a suit with a tie. Arcturus places down sheets of information for a space movie. Arcturus said, “I have the idea of a lifetime. Here it is...” Arcturus unfolds a poster of Starchest. Arcturus said, “This is a movie event that will take the world by storm. It is filled with action and conflict and characters and fearsome villains and the poor and lonely hero has to take a stand to save the galaxy and his friends. There is an evil knight in shiny armor that devastates the galaxy. There is an old geezer that teaches the main hero stuff before he kicks the bucket. This movie has just about anything you would ever want in a movie.” The executives look over the papers and they look intrigued by it. One of the executives said, “This looks great. We will buy it. We will let you know when the shooting will begin. Your script is absolutely powerful.” Arcturus said, “Thank you.” Arcturus bows down and he leaves the boardroom. One of the executives yells, “Next!” A man in a plaid shirt enters the boardroom. He shows his papers of information. The man said, “I am Randall Certis and I am the creator of Starchest. It is a...” One of the executives said, “A movie about conflict and war in space with an underprivileged hero that has to save the galaxy and take a stand against an evil black knight in shiny armor. That was just pitched to us.” Randall said, “What? I came up with this a few years ago. How could...” The executive said, “All these papers are the same as the ones that other man handed to us. I think you stole his work. That is illegal you know. We can sue you for this.” Randall said, “I swear I came up with it...”

Randall is in court against Arcturus and Arcturus wins the case. Randall bows his head down in sadness. Randall leaves the courtroom and he sheds a tear. He hears a voice say, “I know what happened and I can help.” Randall turns around and he sees Justice Knight leaning against a wall in the courthouse. Justice Knight said, “You are Randall Certis right?” Randall said, “Right.” Justice Knight said, “You have a great future ahead of you. I know the future. Starchest becomes the biggest franchise on the planet. Arcturus stole your idea so he could get all the fortune and fame from it. Don't worry. We will make sure you recover what is yours.”

Randall is in Justice Knight's lair. Justice Knight, Krysta, Yuio, and Randall look at a map of the studio the movie is being filmed at. Justice Knight said, “It looks like Arcturus had the office building and the studio combined into the same building.” The screen shows the interior of the place. Randall said, “That looks exactly like those plans I drew out for the Dread Sphere." Justice Knight said, "Exactly. We need a plan. It looks like the place is being guarded by knights in white armor. They have a vague resemblance to the armor I have." Justice Knight looks at his crew and he said, "I think I have an idea."

Justice Knight has his armor painted white and Krysta and Randall are dressed in the white armor and Yuio is handcuffed and chained and they carry Yuio to the entrance of the studio. They get to the front and a guard dressed in gray is working at the booth. The man stops them and he said, "Where are you going?" Justice Knight said, "We are extras in the space movie being filmed here. We have a prisoner they added into the script." The guard said, "I didn't know they changed the script." Justice Knight said, "Here it is." The guard looks to Justice Knight and Justice Knight smashes the guard in the face and Justice Knight reaches his arms to the controls and he opens up the front defense gate and they enter.

They walk through the halls of the place. They see they are shiny. Yuio looks at the floor and Yuio said, "These floors are so shiny, I can see my reflection in them better than in any mirror." Justice Knight tugs at Yuio and Justice Knight said, "Keep your mouth shut." They look at a map of the place. Justice Knight said, "It looks like Arcturus' office is located in the dead center of the place. I bet there is proof in there that he stole your idea. His office also happens to be located close to the prison center. Something tells me there is supposed to be a scene shot there. Krysta, you take Yuio to the prison center and Randall and myself will go after Arcturus." Krysta said, "What if you need me?" Justice Knight said, "We can't leave Yuio alone since he is a prisoner and someone has to be with me to uncover the plans." Krysta said, "Okay I guess you win." They split up.

Justice Knight and Randall walk through the halls. They see armies of white knight soldiers are marching through the place. Justice Knight and Randall walk into an open door and it shuts right behind them. The door is locked and they are stuck on the opening for a bridge and there is no bridge. Randall said, "How are we going to cut across?" Justice Knight looks up and he sees a magnet on the ceiling that is moving cargo from one spot to another. Justice Knight said, "Grab onto me." Randall grabs on and Justice Knight jumps in the air and he heads for the magnet. Justice Knight's armor is attached to the magnet. Justice Knight is stuck tight onto the magnet. Justice Knight tries to jump off the magnet but he is stuck on too tight. Justice Knight said, "I didn't think the magnet would be this strong. That means I must turn off the magnetic portion of my armor. Be careful now." Justice Knight turns off the magnetic portion of his armor and he goes dropping down with Randall and they land in a pile of cargo and Randall's helmet falls off revealing his face." White knight soldiers look at Randall. They say, "Intruder! Intruder!" They arm their blasters and they fire a volley of laser blasts at Randall and Justice Knight. Justice Knight takes out his sword and he deflects their shots with it and he sends some of the shots back at the white knight soldiers. More white knight soldiers are summoned in and Justice Knight charges into them and he fights them all off. Justice Knight spots a door and he said, "Come with me." Randall follows Justice Knight through the door.

Krysta holds tightly onto Yuio's chains. They enter the prison section. The prison attendant looks at them. He said, "Ah, good. You caught us another creature that defiled the code of the Cosmic Dictatorship. We don't need him in prison right now. Instead he could be brought to the kitchen. The chef has been needing something to cook us for dinner tonight." Yuio flails his arms around and he said, "I'm not going to be eaten by anyone!" Krysta loses her grip on Yuio and Yuio runs around the prison section like an idiot. Advanced prison guards enter the place with shock-stick weapons and they try to fight Yuio. Yuio smashes some of them into the wall. One of them manages to attack Yuio and Yuio falls to the floor. Krysta sees a blaster on the floor from one of the down troops. Krysta grabs the blaster and sets it for stun and she stuns the guards. Krysta regains her grip on Yuio. Krysta said, “Don't bug out like that. You know we won't let you get eaten by these people.”

Arcturus is in his office and he looks at a vector screen that shows things going on on the set. A red light flashes. The phone rings and Arcturus answers it. The voice on the other end said, “Master Arcturus, we have an emergency alert in the prison section and in the cargo section. We believe there are intruders in here.” Arcturus goes to the security cameras and he views footage of Justice Knight fighting off a whole legion of white knights and Krysta stunning guards to rescue Yuio. Arcturus said, “They're here. Make sure they don't leave. Put the entire studio under lock-down.”

Justice Knight and Randall are in another unknown hallway in the studio. The room goes dark and it is then lit by red lights. A voice over the intercom said, “There are intruders in the studio. Until the matter is resolved, the entire studio will be under lock-down.” Justice Knight said, “They must know we are here.” A sly voice said, “Of course they do.” They turn around and they see Bounty Knight with his purple sword of bounty drawn and fully decking out the light purple armor that looks similar to Justice Knight's armor and Bounty Knight has an emblem on his armor of an orange sphere with a blue sphere. Justice Knight draws out his sword. Justice Knight said, “You know money is not everything.” Bounty Knight said, “It is to me unless you can pay me more.” Justice Knight and Bounty Knight clash their sword together. They duel. Bounty Knight swings his sword upwards and Justice Knight ducks and the sword cuts part of the wall behind Justice Knight. Justice Knight uppercuts Bounty Knight. Bounty Knight jumps back at Justice Knight and Justice Knight blocks with his sword. Randall slowly walks away from the fight without being noticed by either of the knights. Randall tries to navigate his way around the dark red halls. Randall runs into a phone on the wall and it rings. Randall answers the phone and the voice on the line said, “Randall Certis?” Randall said, “It is me.” The voice said, “Your previous film, Arcadian Hijinks was aired on television last night. We are going to deposit $5000 into your bank account for that. It has already happened. I am just calling to let you know.” Randall said, “How would you know I would be here?” The voice said, “I've known you for years. They are filming your movie at the studio, right?” Randall gets a flashback of Bounty Knight saying, “Unless you can pay me more.” Randall runs back to the duel and Justice Knight and Bounty Knight are still dueling. Randall walks to Bounty Knight and he writes Bounty Knight a large check. Bounty Knight stops fighting and Bounty Knight said, “What is this?” Randall said, “Is that more than what Arcturus is paying you?” Bounty Knight said, “It is.” Randall said, “Good. I will pay you that much and you have to be on our side now. You have to help me get my movie back so Arcturus won't profit off my brainchild.” Bounty Knight said, “It is settled then. You are my master now.” Randall said, “Good, and don't tell Arcturus either.”

White knights storm the place and Arcturus is with them. They surround Justice Knight. They open fire and they fire balls of jelly plasma at Justice Knight. Justice Knight cuts some of it off at first but more of it keeps raining down on him and he gets completely engulfed in the plasma. Arcturus and his white knights take Justice Knight to the prison section. Arcturus said, “Nice work, Bounty Knight. We have Justice Knight now. Why is Randall here?” Bounty Knight said, “I was just getting him out of here. You don't want him. Justice Knight and company are the real danger.” Arcturus said, “Sure. I take your word.”

Justice Knight is placed in a holding cell with Krysta and Yuio. Krysta said, “It looks like we all got captured. Where's Randall?” Justice Knight said, “He's with Bounty Knight. I think he is paying Bounty Knight to do something.”

Randall and Bounty Knight leave the studio and they are at Randall's ranch in Hollywood. Randall is in his main office and he bounces a ball off the side of the wall and Bounty Knight stands there watching him. Randall said, “Justice Knight is my friend. I can't let him down like this. I can't give up on Arcturus owning my movie like this.” Randall takes a look at the map for the place. Randall notices something. The main office is in a tower in the center and it is high above everything else in the studio. Randall said, “It looks like the main office Arcturus is keeping the stolen ideas is in the center of the place above everything else. It looks like the only thing truly protecting the place is a thin line of metal or plastic that forms a dome over the thing. It may be destroyed with those starfighter things I came up with.” Randall looks at a poster of a starfighter design. Bounty Knight takes a look at it and he said, “I have a fighter just like that. In fact, I know a whole squad of people that have fighters like that. It would cost a bit extra though.” Randall looks at his bank stats and he said, “My first movie is expected to air on TV next week so I will get $5000 more for that. Is that good enough? I will give you more once I get my current movie back from Arcturus.” Bounty Knight said, “Let me think... it's a deal.”

Randall is in the cockpit of a starfighter and he is at the head of a whole squadron of fighters. They head for the studio. In the prison section of the studio, Arcturus is standing in front of Justice Knight, Yuio, and Krysta. Arcturus said, “This is where you will spend the rest of your days. As a prisoner on the set of one of the most iconic films to date.” A white knight comes in and he said, “Arcturus, there is a whole squadron of starfighters heading this way.” Arcturus said, “What?” The place shakes and the alarm in the studio sounds. Arcturus said, “You guys are supposed to be pilots too. Scramble the fighters! Make sure they don't get what they want.”

Arcturus' fighters enter the sky and they dogfight with Bounty Knight and Randall's squadron. The bombers on Randall's side begin dropping red sphere bombs on the outer shield. Randall gets shot at by one of Arcturus' fighters. Bounty Knight shoots off that fighter. Randall fires more blasts at the outer shield. More Arcturus fighters try gunning him down. Randall spins the fighter around and he dodges more shots. Randall shoots down some of the fighters. The pilots escape the fighters with parachutes and the remains of the fighters crash into the shield and the shield shatters like glass. The main office is exposed. Arcturus stands in his office as he watches the air battle outside. Randall's fighter gets shot at again and the fighter fails. Randall sees he is going down and he aims the starfighter to crash into Arcturus' office and it does. Randall gets out and he said, “I know you have my original documents.” Arcturus said, “I won't give them to you that easy.” Arcturus draws out his sapphire sword. Randall reaches into his belt and he pulls out a light sword. Randall said, “My experimental weapon.” Randall and Arcturus duel. Bounty Knight is still gunning down Arcturus' fighters. Bounty Knight sees the energy source for the studio. Bounty Knight guns down the power source. The power goes out in the studio and Justice Knight, Krysta, and Yuio, are set free. Justice Knight said, “We have to get out of here. This place looks like it will blow.” Krysta said, “Something tells me we are not done yet.” Krysta dashes off. Yuio said, “What a hero.”

Randall duels Arcturus in the office. Arcturus cuts Randall's hand with the sword and Randall loses his light sword and he grabs onto his hand in pain. Arcturus said, “There is a lot you don't know about me. I technically own you. I am the reason you exist. I created you for this reason.” Randall said, “So I can feel pain and suffering from people stealing my work?” Arcturus said, “No...” Krysta barges in the place and she finds the files that state the work was originally made by Randall. Arcturus turns to Krysta. Arcturus said, “Krysta, how's my favorite citizen?” Krysta said, “These are not yours.” Randall takes out a small blaster set for stun. Randall blasts Arcturus with it and Arcturus falls to the floor stunned. Krysta said, “Thanks, let's get out of here.” Krysta and Randall jump out the broken glass window and they land on Yuio that already has Justice Knight. The heroes escape the scene.

Two Years Later

Famous people from all over the world go to a large platinum movie theater that is showing the Starchest movie. It says that Randall Certis wrote and directed the movie. Randall leaves the theater after the movie ends and fans from all over cheer him on. Justice Knight, Krysta, and Yuio are among the fans there. Randall, Justice Knight, Krysta, and Yuio, get into Randall's limo and it is being driven by Bounty Knight. Yuio said, “That was the greatest movie premiere ever.” Justice Knight said, “I can say the same and I've been going to movie premieres for decades.” Krysta said, “I am proud of you, Randall.” Randall said, “Bounty Knight, take us to the fanciest schmanciest, restaurant in Hollywood.” Bounty Knight said, “You're the boss.” The heroes ride off into the night. Arcturus is standing on a street corner. Arcturus looks at a map of the Certis family tree. Arcturus said, “You don't know it but I am your father. I created you and I have proof.” Arcturus grips onto a test tube.
